Mt. Pleasant Church news

"God has appointed unto men to die, and after this the judgment" Heb. 9:27

In a recent version of the Mt. Pleasant news, it was incorrectly noted that the Rev. James Gafford of the Bronx passed away. It was acutally his wife who died. We apologize for the error.

There was a plate dinner at Mt. Pleasant to benefit the Pastor's Aid Club. Thanks to everyone who came and everyone who donated food.

Sunday Oct. 5 at 11 a.m. there was a service at church. The minister was Clifford McGrad from the Second Friendship Baptist Church of Newark, N. J. He gave a splendid message, "Running the Christian Race." It was enjoyed by all. We had guests from Baltimore, Washington, New York, Buckingham, Richmond and Farmville. There was almost a full house.

Our hearts go out to the Scruggs family in the loss of their loved one, Deacon George Scruggs of the Cannan Baptist Church.

The winner of the ham was Sam Sweeney of Concord. Sorry everyone couldn't be a winner.

The Usher Board will be celebrating their anniversary next Sunday, Oct. 12 at 4 p.m. Come out and let them know we appreciate the good work they do.

Everyone who has tickets for the NAACP, please return your money to Miss Denise Jackson, before the third Sunday this month. She is our queen.

We are praying for the sick and shut-in. Stop in to see them if only for a few minutes. It will be greatly appreciated.

St Luke news

On Oct. 2 there was an amusing birthday surprise event; The St. Luke Choir was scheduled for a rehearsal at 7:00 pm. On a very short notice the pianist called and stated that she could not be there. In the mean time, Mrs. Shirley Canada, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Anna Canada had planned a surprise birthday to be given at the church after the rehearsal was over. After finding there would not be rehearsal. Mrs. Shirley wondered how could she get Mrs. Anna away from her house, and get the surprise over. Well it so happened when Shirley and Mrs. Louise Canada reached Mrs. Anna's house. She was out to clean the church since no rehearsal; so everything was fine and ready when Mrs. Anna returned. She walked in her door and saw people sitting around and said in a joking manner, "What are you all sitting here looking at me silly for?" Then she was ushered into the kitchen, it was fun to see her expression. The occasion was enjoyable and she received money, beautiful cards and gifts. Those present were Mrs. Ollie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Tweedy, Mrs. Louise Canada and the little children. Very good on a short notice. Also Mrs. Shirley Mitchell was present.

A very nice group of members and friends were present to attend the regular preaching services baptismal and communion, Oct. 5. Rev. J. E. McLaughlin was in charge, after being out on vacation. After having been ill he is feeling very well. His text was taken from 1 John 4-4th subject Being a Christian Regardless of Circumstances.

It was a very enjoyable day for the group. The offering was very good.

Mrs. Thelma Nowlin Bradley was out to the services after having been ill for quite a long while at her home and in the hospital.
